CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

The Washington Association of Wine Grape Growers (WAWGG) 2017 Convention offers a unique opportunity for volunteers and/or aspiring students of viticulture, enology, and related studies to meet key grape and wine industry leaders, and experience the excitement of the largest convention of its type in the Pacific Northwest.

The Washington Wine Industry Foundation (WWIF) hosts their 2017 Party + Auction during the Convention on Wednesday, February 8. Volunteers are needed for this event as well.

As a volunteer, you play a key role in the success of the Convention by assisting educational sessions, providing customer service to registrants and exhibitors, and assisting WAWGG staff in the many jobs and processes it takes to carry out this event.

Benefits

- Committing to a shift allows you access to the Convention!
 - Events include industry-expert speakers and sessions, poster exhibition, Trade Show, hiring event, awards reception, and learning luncheon. Entry to WWIF Party + Auction not included.
 - Note that due to liquor laws, your complimentary membership will be considered "Under 21" regardless of your age and you may not sample alcohol unless you purchase your own ticket to the WAWGG Convention OR the WWIF Party + Auction.
- 8-hour shifts earn a FULL Student Convention Registration and include a 30-minute break. We provide your lunch!
- 4-hour shifts ear a ONE-DAY Student Convention Registration for any Convention day. Lunch is not provided.

Expectations

- Maintain a professional demeanor, punctuality, and willingness to assist attendees with all questions
- Attire:
 - Black slacks or dress pants (no jeans)
 - Comfortable dress shoes (heels not recommended)
 - Solid-colored business shirt or blouse (black or white preferred; no T-shirts, no midriff/cleavage)
 - WAWGG will provide a "VOLUNTEER" vest to be worn during shift
- NO perfume, cologne, or other strong-smelling scents (as it affects the tastings)
- Ability to lift up to 50 lbs.
- Spanish-speaking a plus!

Pre-registration as a volunteer is required.
